- 11.7. Candidates who are excluded under the provisions of the previous sections have the right to a prior hearing. They will be granted a period of ten (10) days to submit their statements or objections.

12. The selection method and evaluation criteria

- 12.1. The selection method and evaluation criteria under the terms of paragraph 2 of article 10 of Decree-Law no. 124/99, of 20 April, in its current wording, consist of the assessment of the candidates' Curriculum vitae and scientific work, with the Absolute Merit Approval being applied first, of an eliminatory nature, followed by the Relative Merit Assessment.

12.2. Candidates who have submitted their application in accordance with item 10, and who demonstrate that they are qualified, will be admitted on absolute merit:

12.2.1. PhD degree in the scientific area indicated in item 4.2;

12.2.2. Professional experience after the PhD, at least 2 years in the area of Plant Protection, mastery of Bacteriology:

12.2.2.1. Quality of scientific and technical work in the area of Plant Protection, preferably in the field of Bacteriology, namely;

12.2.2.2. Coordination or participation in at least 1 research and technological development project;

12.2.2.3. Have at least 3 publications, as first, second or last author, published in the last 5 years in a Q1 or Q2 journal with an impact factor in the areas of Clarivate Analytics Web of Science or SCOPUS with regard to their contribution to the development and evolution of the scientific area or domain in which the competition is open.

12.2.3. Holding a valid driver's license for category B vehicles (light vehicles).

12.3. Once the candidates approved in absolute merit have been definitively identified, in accordance with the provisions of the previous point, the Selection Committee will proceed with the evaluation of their relative merit, following the procedures established in Article 16(3) of the ECIC, in its current version. For the ranking process, with a classification from 0 to 100 points, and the classification system, which will be based on the weighted score assigned to each candidate by each member of the panel, which will consider the parameters listed below, valuing the last 5 years with a weighting factor of 1.5 in relation to the previous path:

12.3.1. Quality of scientific and technical work (QTC) in the area of the competition, with a weighting of 35%;

12.3.2. Professional experience (EP) in the area of the competition, with a weighting of 25%;

12.3.3. Professional training (FP) in the area of the competition, with a weighting of 15%;

12.3.4. Contributions to scientific guidance activities (CAOC), with a weighting of 10%;

12.3.5. Participation in management bodies (POG), with a weighting of 5%;

12.3.6. Provision of service to the community and transfer of Technology (PSCTT) in the competition area, with a weighting of 10%.

12.4. The parameters referred to in item 12.3. will be detailed in the following terms:

12.4.1. The assessment of the Quality of Scientific and Technical Work (QTC) in the area of the position, Plant Protection in the field of Phytobacteriology, will be based on the sum of the following items:

i) - Coordination of or participation in research and technological development projects:

- International projects - up to 20 points/project;
- National projects - up to 12 points/project.

These values will be multiplied by the weighting factor 1, if the function is coordination, by 0.5 if the function is task responsible, and by 0.3, if the function is participation, and will take into account the duration of the project.

ii - Publications in the field of the position:

- Editor/co-editor of books with ISBN in an internationally recognized publisher in the scientific field — up to 6 points each;
- Editor/co-editor of books with ISBN in a national publisher – up to 3 points each;
- Book chapters with an ISBN from an internationally recognised publisher in the scientific field - up to 3 points each;
- Book chapters with ISBN from a national publisher – up to 2 points each;
- Articles in international journals indexed in Clarivate Analytics Web of Science or SCOPUS - up to 6 points each;
- Articles in national journals indexed - up to 2 points each;
- Articles in non-indexed journals - up to 1 point each;
- Publications in conference proceedings - up to 0.2 points each;
- Other publications - up to 0.1 points each.

These values will be multiplied by a weighting factor of 1 in the case of first author, second author, last author or corresponding author, and by a factor of 0.5 in other cases.

iii - Creation and reinforcement of laboratory resources

Parameter that considers the candidate's participation in and coordination of initiatives that have resulted in the creation or reinforcement of laboratory infrastructures or research support methodologies - up to 3 points per action.

iv - Stimulating scientific activity and networks

This parameter assesses the candidate's ability to coordinate and lead research teams, as well as their participation in advanced training networks, in collaboration with national and international institutions; - up to 10 points per action.

v - Recognition by the international scientific community:

Parameter considered:

- Scientific awards and distinctions from scientific societies within the scope of the competition – up to 2 points each;
- Editorial activities in scientific journals - up to 1 point each;
- Coordination and participation in programme committees for scientific events - up to 2 points each;
- Organising guest lectures at scientific meetings or other events - up to 2 points each;
- Participation as a member of scientific societies with competitive admission and other similar distinctions - up to 0.5 points each.

These values will be multiplied by the weighting factor 1, if it is international, and by 0.5 if it is national.

12.4.2. The Professional Experience parameter (EP) should assess the level and suitability of the candidate's academic degrees and qualifications as well as their professional experience, up to 3 points per semester, taking into account the diversity, quality and innovation of the activities carried out as an Assistant Researcher in the scientific area of the position, namely in the parameters and/or themes considered preferential, as well as their relevance to the development of this scientific area at INIAV, I.P. These aspects must be clearly presented in the Curriculum Vitae.

12.4.3. The Professional Training parameter (FP) should consider the specialised/advanced training courses attended and the participation in and coordination of technological training courses aimed at companies and the public sector, considering their nature, technological intensity and the results achieved during the course, and will be scored up to 0.1 points/hour of training. Training activities attended by candidates who do not show the number of hours attended will not be considered.

12.4.4. The Contributions to Scientific Guidance Activities (CAOC) parameter should consider the supervision and guidance of doctoral students, undergraduate master's students, interns, research fellows and students, considering the number, quality, scope and scientific/technological impact of the resulting publications, theses, dissertations and final course work, especially distinguishing award-winning work and international recognition:

- PhD supervision - up to 9 points;
- Master's degree supervision - up to 3 points;
- Supervising undergraduate work - up to 2 points;
- Other supervision - up to 1 point;

Only completed supervisions will be considered.

12.4.5. The Participation in Management Bodies parameter (POG) considers the activities carried out in scientific and technological management bodies and will be scored up to 0.5 point/month, when applicable, and up to 2 points in other activities, namely:

- Positions in bodies of educational or research institutions or in the corporate sphere: parameter that considers the nature and responsibility of the position;
- Positions in research units and coordination: a parameter that considers the position, the universe of activity and the results obtained by the candidate in the exercise of management functions in departments and research units;
- Temporary positions and tasks: a parameter that considers the nature, scope and results obtained by the candidate when participating in the editorial activities of international journals, in the evaluation of scientific programmes, in academic exam juries, in competition juries and in temporary positions and tasks that have been assigned by the competent management bodies, among others;
- Other positions: a parameter that considers the exercise of positions referred to in article 49 of the ECIC, as it currently stands, and positions in national and international scientific organisations.

12.4.6. The Community Service and Technology Transfer parameter (PSCTT), quantified up to 5 points/per service activity, considering:

- Authorship and co-authorship of patents and/or models, considering their nature, territorial scope, technological level and the results obtained;
- Legislation and technical standards: a parameter that considers participation in drafting legislation and standards, considering their nature, territorial scope and technological level;
- Coordination/participation in technical committees;
- Authorship/co-authorship of technical publications;
- Training in technical actions;
- Carrying out national and international communications or lectures, of a technical nature, by invitation;
- Provision of services and consultancy integrated with the institutional mission: parameter that takes into account participation in activities involving the business environment and the public sector, taking into account the type of participation, dimension, diversity, technological intensity and innovation.

12.5. Preferred parameters

Experience in research in terms related to Phytobacteriology was also defined as preferential parameters, including skills in the use of:

- Diagnostic tools used in classical and biomolecular microbiology, namely the preparation and isolation of bacterial strains; immunocytological tests; quantitative PCR; proteomic analysis; Sanger sequencing and phylogenetic analysis; NGS sequencing and taxonomic and functional analysis of genomes and microbial communities; programming and biological data analysis tools.

13. Rules governing the selection committee

- 13.1. The Selection Committee, in its operation, will respect the operating rules established in the ECIC, in its current wording.
- 13.2. In its first meeting, the Selection Committee will approve this call for applications, as recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 13.3. In its second meeting, the Selection Committee will verify the admission requirements of the candidates and prepare the list of admitted and excluded candidates, ensuring that each exclusion is duly justified. Additionally, it will initiate the prior hearing process for excluded candidates.
- 13.4. In its third meeting, the Selection Committee will approve candidates based on absolute and in the evaluation of relative merit.
- 13.5. The vote against approval on absolute merit must be based on the criteria established in item 12.2.
- 13.6. The Final Result of the evaluation of each candidate by each member of the panel (RF_j) is calculated using the weighting formula for the various parameters:

$$RF_j = 0,35 * QTC + 0,25 * EP + 0,15 * FP + 0,10 * CAOC + 0,05 * POG + 0,10 * PSCTT$$

13.7. Voting Procedure for the Final Ranking of Candidates:

- 13.7.1. Pre-Voting Procedures: During the meeting, before voting begins, each Selection Committee member must present a written document detailing their ranking of the candidates, based on the approved parameters and criteria. This document will be attached to the meeting minutes.
- 13.7.2. In all voting rounds, each Selection Committee member must adhere to the ranking presented in their written document. Abstentions are not allowed.
 - 13.7.2.1. The first voting round determines the candidate to be placed in first position.
 - 13.7.2.2. Majority rule: If a candidate receives more than half of the votes, they are placed in first position. If no candidate achieves a majority, a new voting round is conducted excluding the least-voted candidate from the previous round.
 - 13.7.2.3. If two or more candidates are tied for the least-voted position, while at least one other candidate is not in that position, a run-off vote is held among the tied candidates. If the tie persists, the Chair of the Selection Committee decides which candidate is eliminated.

13.7.2.4. The voting process repeats until a candidate secures more than half of the votes for first place. Once the first-ranked candidate is determined, the process is repeated to determine the second place, and so forth, until a final ranked list of all candidates is established.

13.7.3. The Selection Committee reserves the right to request additional supporting documents from candidates in case of doubt. This includes documents in a foreign language other than English or Portuguese, which must be translated into Portuguese or English and certified by the competent authorities.

14. This recruitment process has been prepared by the Selection Committee and will be available on INIAV website: <https://www.iniaiv.pt/procedimentos-concursais-e-de-mobilidade>, Public Employment Exchange (BEP): www.bep.gov.pt, and EURAXESS portal: <https://euraxess.ec.europa.eu/>. This notice will be published on these platforms following its official publication in the Diário da República.

ANNEX

To whom it may concern

I, [Full Name], candidate for the recruitment process for a position of Assistant Researcher in the staff structure of Instituto Nacional de Investigação Agrária e Veterinária, I. P. (INIAV, I. P.), hereby declare, under oath, that I meet all the eligibility requirements for this competition as set forth by the Scientific Research Career Statute (Estatuto da Carreira de Investigação Científica – ECIC), as well as in this notice.

I attest that do not hold a permanent employment relationship in the careers of Scientific Research, University Lecturer, or Polytechnic Higher Education Lecturer, and/or an open-ended contract in national institutions not covered by Career Statutes. Additionally, I have provided documentary proof that I have benefited from a fixed-term contract or a grant, as a PhD holder, in an institution within the National Science and Technology System, prior to the publication date of the respective notice.

I fully understand that providing false statements will result in my exclusion from this recruitment process, without prejudice to the submission of the case to the competent authorities for criminal proceedings.

I also acknowledge that, if I am placed in an eligible position for hiring in the final approved ranking of this recruitment process, I will have a non-extendable period of 10 working days, counted from the notification of the final ranking, to submit to the Human Resources Department of INIAV, I.P. (Departamento de Recursos Humanos do INIAV, I.P.), the supporting documents proving that I meet the legal conditions required to establish a permanent public employment contract with INIAV, I.P.

Furthermore, I understand that failure to submit the required supporting documents mentioned in the previous paragraph, for reasons attributable to me, will result in my exclusion from this competition.
